It takes just 7 seconds to make a first impression

3 Colours Rule is the image consultancy with a life coaching approach. Our aim is to help you look and feel better than you ever thought you could. We work with women, men and companies who want to improve their image to achieve better results.

We created the 3 Colours Rule concept to make looking good and feeling great easy to achieve. 3 Colours Rule is the secret of style. It means that wearing 3 matching colours is all you need to always look outstanding. With us, it is more than appearance improvement; it is about getting back your confidence, happiness and assisting you in achieving your goals
